Jechly JECCounty Clerk TESS.

VOL. NIM. NEW SHHUS, YOL. XV.

SET ON the A SHEET SET OF THE SET O got the Luck with me, now,' and the strong man clinging to the frail bale use a drowning man is said to cling to a straw, drifted away into the sindowy river that flows forever of the unknown sea.

The Education of Women.

Will then the better education of our women unfit them for the discharge of woman's especial actives? If education does not enable us especial duties? If education does not enable us to falfill our duties, there must be some ratical defect in it, and if it does not fit us for the discharge of them, then what does? That the women of the present day are not fitted for theirs, is a lamontable flort, or why should we see so many unhappy homes, and so many men unwilling to marry? A not education that teaches a woman to do little more than fitter away be riting let move the infinite and makes her merely a drawing-room ornament, without giving her any useful knowledge by which she may carry a living, should necessity rompel her to do so, is a necess cone; and this, in most cases, is the only education of the winner of England at the present time. There is no afternity to make the an intelligent companion, to give her the knowledge of these colland and the passed. When one of England at the present time. There is no afternity to make her an intelligent companion, to give her the knowledge of these colland and the winner never intended it should be passed. When our every time is passed in the way in way which was the winner of England and the winner never intended it should be passed. When our every the women, if they many arrived to the work of the woman, if they many arrived to the work of the work way does the education they have received in them for that position? How not the whole tenor of the instruction they have received integrated them to study display as much as possible, and the shop for the pursual of politics and the instruction they have received integrated them to study display as much as possible, the last shop for the pursual of politics and the last shop for the pursual of politics and the power, to aim at appearances, and to make the best show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the set show before the world, no matter at the shop for the pursual of politics and the shop for the pursual of set at the star that the later and the world when the star the star that the shop for the matter and the shop for the pursual of set at the star the star the star the star the star the star that the shop for the matter and the shop for the pursual of set at the star that the star the sta

NUMBER SEVENTEEN.

Nine out of every ten women, if they marry at all, are the wives of poor men. In what velop its resources, to give up liberess, and life, of the oth Vt. Volunteers, and was subsequently the best show before the world, no matter at what cost? How can such a content at the best show before the world, no matter at what cost? How can such a content at the sum of material companies for intelligent men of material lines for the material companies and the material companies for intelligent men of material lines for material lines fo to consider all liberal studies experimous? The prevalence of a sentiment of that order is sure to tell unhappily on any community in the end, besides selvertising its present in an unenviable light. Vermont should send more of her sons to the colleges.—Boston Post.

Reported for the Free Press. Dedication of Bethany Church, Mont-

The splendid new church, erected by the Congregational Society of Montpelier, was dedicated to its use Oct. 15th. Our columns have recently contained a full description of the church, and we need not repeat it. The church was crowded, seats and aisles, with an attentive audience. The exercises were as follows:

Voluntary-Mr. H. L. Proctor, Organist.

Chant—(English.) Invocation—By Rev. William Hazen, of Northfield.
Reading of Scriptures—2 Chron, 6: 18, Heb. 19: 17, 27—By Rev. Mr. Carpenter, of Berlin. Anthem—" Who dwelleth 'neath the defence of the Most High,"—Richter.
Prayer—By Rev. M9. Copeland, of Water-

DEDICATION HYMN. OF THE LAYE BLY. J. K. MED, OF CINCINNATI.

Tune-Dake Street. When God the primal light unsealed, And bound in spheres its golden bars, Through all the glowing vault there pealed The chorus of the morning stars.

When Christ was born, those notes again

And earth gave back to heaven the prais-

And when the promised age of gold Sees fairer lands and brighter skie Spring from the rains of the old. Still louder shall the anthem rise.

Meanwhile, along these walls where now Our first glad sacrifics we bring. That wing shall echo till we bow To sing with angels near the King.

SERMON

Republican party, burgangly and simply so an earnest and willing supporter of General Grant in addition to my openion of the superior fitsess to typichicatures of ten Grant for the Presidency in the present series, I am constrained to the season of the present series, I am constrained to the season of the present series, I am constrained to the season of the party of the season of the would have greater power to head the would indicated charmy our labe stringle than allegations, if easier, and that with as kind and grained to desire the season of the man, his recommendation for the man his recommendation of the man, his recommendation of the man his recommen